Villages Under Attack, Claims Katanga Head

Elisabethville, Katanga. (AP)—President Moise Tshombe claimed that troops of the central Congo government attacked villages near the town of Katanga today. He charged the Central Congo forces were aided by United Nations troops.

He told a news conference at his residence here there had been serious fighting in the area earlier today.

Tshombe also charged Indian Canberra jet bombers attacked the town of Katanga itself.

He said the Congolese forces which launched the attack consisted of two battalions and two commando companies. The United Nations, he alleged, helped the central Congolese troops by providing transport for them.

Katanga lies about 40 miles south of Katanga's border with Kivu Province.

By PETER GROSE

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP)—The Congo government and the U.N. Congo mission appeared today to be biding their time until Jan. 3 when President Moise Tshombe's Katanga Assembly is to meet to discuss future relations with the Leopoldville regime.

Military and political tension remained high in the Katanga secessionist capital of Elisabethville and was likely to remain so until Tshombe's politicians decide whether they will adhere to the agreement he made at Kitona on Dec. 21 to end secession.

Tshombe, whose authority as president of Katanga has seldom seemed in doubt, contends the agreement has to be ratified by his provincial Assembly.

The central government of Premier Cyrille Adoula regards the agreement as ironclad, but has made no move to press matters.

Six Katanga deputies, who took seats Thursday in the national Parliament in partial fulfillment of the compact, made no significant contribution to the debates. The nine remaining Katanga representatives had not reached Leopoldville.

The policy of waiting on the Katangans extended even to the Congo army unit the United Nations agreed to accept as part of its force. The Congolese appear to be having second thoughts about it. A 10-man advance unit was to have left for Katanga in north Katanga three days ago but has not moved.

Reports from Elisabethville said feelings between Katangans and U.N. personnel again were reaching the high pitch that preceded the outbreak of fighting on Dec. 5. Katangans were beginning to react against U.N. patrols, roadblocks and arrests.

A Swedish patrol killed two Katangan soldiers and took 14 prisoners Thursday when it was fired on unexpectedly, the U.N. spokesman said.

Maids Trying to Impress Judges

MEMPHIS (AP)—The 22 Cotton-belt beauties trying for the Maid of Cotton title buckled down to impressing the seven judges today.

Each girl was called for private interviews by the panel. The grand finale, before an invitation-only audience, comes tonight at City Auditorium.

The winner will succeed Maid Linda Lackey of Forest, Miss. The prizes include an extensive wardrobe, training as a model, a six-months publicity tour and a new car.

Judging is on "beauty, personality, background and training."

A flair for clothes is important, since the maid's main duties involve modeling at high fashion shows.

Arab League Irked by British Men

CAIRO (AP)—The Arab League warned Thursday night that it will withdraw its security forces from Kuwait if British troops return. But Britain's fears of an Iraqi move against the tiny oil sheikdom subsided after the British show of strength in the Middle East.

Sayed Nofal, deputy secretary-general of the Arab League, declared that the Arab nations would not permit their forces to carry out joint action with British forces in Kuwait under any circumstances. The league sent 2,500 troops to Kuwait last August to replace British units rushed there after Iraqi Premier Abdel Karim Kassem threatened to annex the sheikdom.

Nofal asserted that the dispatch this week by Britain of seven warships and air and troop reinforcements to the Middle East—where Britain feared the new threats on Kuwait—had caused concern in Arab League circles.

He said the tiny sheikdom, that adjoins Iraq on the northern end of the Persian Gulf, did not ask the British to return and that Britain "does not have any territories in this area (which) allow her to order her troops to head to the Middle East and protect these territories."

Nofal contended that "the responsibility of the Arab states and the presence of the Arab security force in Kuwait is an expression of the league membership's solidarity with Kuwait and their obligation to defend its independence."

"It may all have been a false alarm," one British official in London conceded. "But governments, like fire brigades, find it better to be safe than sorry." The defense ministry ordered the alert on the basis of intelligence reports from the Middle East.

The British alert was prompted by urgent reports from intelligence agents and diplomats over the Christmas holiday that Kassem—emboldened by the U.N. failure to act against India's invasion of Goa—might soon try to make good his claim to Kuwait.

Former Hempstead Resident Dies

Earl Crow, aged 85, a former resident of Hempstead, died yesterday in Houston. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Madge Crow of Houston, two sons, Milton Crow of the U.S. Army, Elvie Crow of Houston; five sisters, Mrs. E. E. Jackson of Patmos, Mrs. Vida Exie Brooks and Mrs. Effie Woosley of Shreveport, and Mrs. Muri Walker of Houston and a brother, Milo Shepard of Hope.

Graveside Services will be held at 2 p. m. Saturday at Old Sardis Cemetery with the Rev. Edgar Lafferty officiating. Arrangements are in charge of Oakcrest Funeral Service.

Two Killed in Road Accident

JACKSONVILLE, Ark. (AP)—Police said an automobile driven by a police victim collided with a trailer truck here today, killing both occupants of the car.

The two were Bobby Cullum, 20, the driver and Summy Kirtley, 20, both of Jacksonville.

Police said Cullum customarily used a wheel chair.

They said the automobile was not equipped with special controls. The automobile, police said, veered over a center line and collided with the truck, driven by James M. Witherspoon, 42, of Houston, Tex.

Witherspoon apparently was not injured, but was taken to a hospital at Little Rock for examination.

School Board Deals Chided, No Refunds

DEWITT, Ark. (AP)—Chancellor Lawrence E. Dawson has enjoined the De Witt School Board from repeating some of its business transactions. But he said the school district hasn't lost any money and he refused to order refunds.

Dawson's ruling Thursday may have ended the complicated suit brought against the board by a group of taxpayers. The taxpayers claimed the board members were among other things, doing business with their own firms without taking competitive bids.

Dawson ruled that school boards are not required to take competitive bids unless some board member has an interest in the proposed contract. This was one of the legal points around which the case was centered.

The chancellor did say that open bidding means that every dealer who desires should have the opportunity of bidding on school purchases.

The taxpayers who brought the suit charged that the board had bought from price lists or without advertising for bids.

Dawson's ruling came after oral arguments Thursday. Testimony in the case was heard several weeks ago.

Either side could appeal to the state Supreme Court. An attorney for the taxpayers said he didn't think his side would appeal and there was no indication whether the board might appeal.

It was somewhat of a split decision. Dawson said the school board shouldn't have proceeded as making purchases from companies of which members Elmer Ferguson and J. L. Fly had an interest unless on open competitive bidding.

He enjoined the board on this practice, and against buying from the firms of other members without competitive bids.

But he said there was no proof that the school district had not gotten a fair deal in the transactions even though the letter of the law had not been followed. And he refused to order that the board members pay any money to the district, as the taxpayers had requested.

Dawson dismissed a count growing out of sale of real property by the board, another that the school's surplus canvas had been donated by the board to other groups, one on handling of school bonds, and another challenging the board's employment of Fly's daughter, Mrs. Gayle Ann Abramson, as a teacher.

The chancellor enjoined Supt. R. H. Brotherton, a co-defendant with the board, from future use of school property without board authority. This concerned a complaint that Brotherton used a school truck to move a private garage.

Other board members are Felix Bunch, Howard Knoll and Harold L. Stephenson.

PARIS (AP)—President Charles de Gaulle said tonight he intends to withdraw most of the French army from Algeria in the coming year and predicted an agreement on close ties between an independent Algeria and France.

THIS IS A RARE SCENE BUT ONE THE OLDTIMERS remember vividly. It was hog killing time shortly before Christmas on the Soman Goodlett farm near Ozan. Eight hogs were butchered, averaging 275 pounds dressed. The workers made 370 pounds of sausage and rendered 80 gallons of lard. The sausage is being made on the table while the man is front stirs the cooking cracklins.

Rep. Harris Confirmed as a Candidate

EL DORADO (Special)—Rep. Oren Harris (D-Ark.) Thursday formally confirmed that he would be a candidate for reelection next year.

In a statement issued here announcing the closing of his El Dorado office and his return to Washington, Harris said, "at the proper time I will make formal announcement for re-election to the congress next year."

Harris' Fourth District will be enlarged in 1963 by 11 counties from the present Sixth District through the redistricting plan approved this year by the state legislature.

Until it goes out of existence the Sixth District will be represented by Congresswoman Catherine D. Norrell of Monticello, and she has been mentioned as a probable candidate to represent the new Fourth District.

Harris' statement follows: "I am today (Thursday) closing my office in El Dorado and returning to Washington for the new session of Congress."

"I will leave tomorrow (Friday) with my family, Mrs. Harris and our son, Jimmy, driving through in order to arrive in Washington by New Year's Day."

Mrs. Wilson Succumbs at Age of 89

By WALTER R. MEARS

WASHINGTON (AP)—Mrs. Woodrow Wilson, widow of the President who shaped the League of Nations, has died at the statelike brick town house where she cared for her stricken husband until his death in 1924. She was 89.

The former First Lady, in failing health for more than a month, died Thursday night on the 105th anniversary of her husband's birth.

She was stricken with a respiratory ailment Thanksgiving night, and never regained her strength, her physician said. He said she also had suffered from a heart ailment for years.

Her condition worsened Thursday, then became critical during the afternoon. She died of "hypertensive heart disease with congestive failure," the doctor said.

Two nieces, Mrs. James Powell of New York and Mrs. John Moelling of Chicago, were at her bedside when death came at 10:45 p. m.

Mrs. Wilson married the President Dec. 18, 1915, when he was serving his first term. She was with him constantly after that, screened his callers and studied his papers after he suffered a stroke in 1919, and nursed him

Hope Class of 1951 Has a Reunion

The Hope Country Club was the scene of the reunion held by the Hope High graduating class of 1951 on Saturday, Dec. 23 at 7:30 p. m. As the former classmates arrived, they were greeted by Mrs. Kelly Marlan Overstreet of Prescott, Mrs. Loretta Ward Worlaw of Shreveport and Mrs. Thalia Chism Geist and Jerry O'Neal, both of Hope.

The club room was decorated with the school colors. Greenery, sprayed white with red pine cones and candles graced each table, and favors were rolled programs of red tied with white ribbon. An attractive mantle decoration was also red and white.

Before the group was served a buffet dinner, which included turkey and all the trimmings, the Rev. Carl Willis of Bossier City, La., a member of the class, gave the invocation. Respect was also paid to the memory of Earl Ray Adams, the only deceased member of the class of 57.

Class president Bill Gunter acted as MC for the program. He introduced special guests Supt. of Schools, James H. Jones; Dr. and Mrs. Forney Holt, (principal of Hope High in 1951) and Mrs. P. L. Perkins, Senior English instructor and one of the class sponsors.

A corsage of red sweetheart roses was given to Mrs. Perkins by Mrs. Donald Cooley Huddleston, who had forgotten to make a similar presentation at the So. Class banquet 10 years ago. Each special guest made appropriate remarks as he or she was introduced.

Each class member introduced his wife or husband, told where he lived and how many children they had. Class officers Bill Gunter, Mrs. Greta Caston Gough, Mrs. Donald Cooley Huddleston, and Gordon Beasley read correspondence from class members who could not be present.

The two couples who had traveled the greatest distance for the reunion were Mr. and Mrs. John Pale of Reno, Nev., and Mr. and Mrs. Billy Burke of Omaha, Neb. Four children comprised the largest family represented, and three or four couples tied for that honor.

Mrs. Caroline Hawthorne Viswan of Richardson, Tex., read the class poem written in '51 by Bob Phippin, now of Boston, Mass. Mrs. Wilma Coleman Cranford of Hope read the class prophecy, written by Mrs. JoAnn Shields Lander, now of Ft. Leavenworth, Kan. When the group had sung the school song, they all enjoyed renewing old acquaintances. There were approximately 90 in attendance.

Bill Gunter thanked members of the class who had worked so diligently to make the reunion a success, especially Mrs. Gough and Jerry O'Neal who were in charge of reservations and decorations.

Cobb Quitting
LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Republican Osvo Cobb announced Thursday he is resigning as U.S. district attorney here as soon as a successor is named. Democrat Robert D. Smith of Marianna is expected to be appointed to the position soon.

C. D. Hare & Son Feed and Seed Store has been sold to another Father and Son combination... U. G. and Burgess Garrett will take over the establishment effective Jan. 1.

Dept. Store Sales in Big Increase

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Department store sales in the eighth Federal Reserve District last week showed a 16 per cent increase over sales for the comparable period last year, the St. Louis Federal Reserve Bank reported today.

Louisville showed the biggest increase with 20 per cent, while St. Louis was 19 per cent above last year's level. Little Rock showed a 12 per cent gain, Memphis five per cent and a composite of smaller cities registered an 18 per cent increase.

For the four weeks ending Dec. 23, however, the district sales volume was the same as during the corresponding period of 1960 as was the district figure for the year to date.

New Farm Plan Would Like to Up Incomes

By FRANCES LEWINE

PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP)—President Kennedy is reported ready to launch a new farm program, "modernized for the 1960s" and aimed at increasing farm income.

He went over the details in a three-hour session late Thursday with Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman and key advisers at the vacation White House. Freeman said the program now has the "general approval" of the President, who will announce it in a special agriculture message to Congress.

And, he added, it also will be included in Kennedy's State of the Union Message, which is being ironed out in daily sessions with White House advisers.

Freeman made a flying visit from snowy Washington to Palm Beach to tackle farm problems with Kennedy.

As he boarded an Air Force jet plane to return home Thursday night, the secretary of agriculture reported the new farm program "will make use of our abundance and will strengthen farm incomes."

It will seek "an over-all balance to make use of our abundance," he told reporters.

Kennedy was keeping his advisers busy here as he mixed work on a variety of reports to Congress with relaxation and visits to his ailing father in the hospital.

The chairman of Kennedy's Council of Economic Advisers, Dr. Walter W. Heller, sat in on the conferences. Heller came to Palm Beach Tuesday with the President's special counsel Theodore Sorensen and other advisers.

Additional work on the State of the Union Message remains to be completed. Kennedy will deliver his review of the nation's condition—foreign and domestic—at a joint session sometime after Jan. 10, the timetable for his various reports, however, is undecided.

The President was conducting other routine business as well and getting daily intelligence briefings. He also received a year-end report from his brother, Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy, that said "important progress" had been made in the field of civil rights.

The Kennedy administration took office last Jan. 20.

The Attorney general reviewed progress in the fields of voting, employment and school desegregation.

"I can report to you that the law enforcement officers and civic leaders in the vast majority of communities have met their obligations," he said. "I am confident, therefore, that this year's progress will continue, and that it will be carried forward with the effort and approval of the vast majority of the American people."

The chief executive made a brief morning visit to his 73-year-old father at St. Mary's Hospital in West Palm Beach. Joseph P. Kennedy's condition remained unchanged. He is still partially paralyzed from a stroke suffered Dec. 19 and is unable to speak.

Improvement is reported in the mild case of pneumonia which he contracted several days ago.

Farm Couple Dies in House Fire

MARKED TREE, Ark. (AP)—A farm couple died early today in a fire that destroyed their 3-room house in the Black Oak community, about five miles south of here.

Corner Paul Thompson identified the two as Dewey Woods, 40, and his wife, May, 29.

A neighbor said the house was a mass of flames when she discovered the fire.

Thompson said the fire apparently started around a wood-burning stove.

East U. S. Hit by Freezing, Zero Weather

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Zero and freezing weather enveloped most of the eastern half of the nation today.

Temperatures edged to near zero in parts of Kentucky and Tennessee. Freezing weather nipped to near the Gulf Coast and readings dropped into the 40s in extreme southern Florida.

Some relief from the biting cold in the Midwest was indicated but no immediate, general break in the late December cold spell appeared.

Cloudy skies and snow flurries in the arctic air across the Midwest kept temperatures from hitting the far below zero marks reported Thursday morning. However, they were near zero and a little below in many areas.

The Weather Bureau reported the warming trend will spread across the central part of the country but forecast frost or freezing temperatures into southern Florida by tonight.

The mercury dropped to 7 above in Crossville, Tenn., on 8 in Louisville, Ky., as the cold air spread southward and eastward. Florida felt the sting of the wintry cold, with below freezing, 31 degrees, in Tallahassee. It was 32 in Jacksonville and 42 in Miami.

The heavy snowfalls predicted for New England failed to materialize but there were fairly large amounts in some sections. Six inches of fresh snow fell in Montpelier, Vt., while three inches covered the ground in a six-hour period in Burlington, Vt.

Moderate to heavy rains which pelted much of New England reduced the heavy snow cover. Rain mixed with snow slicked highways in the North Atlantic states while light snow and snow flurries powdered sections along the Appalachians and into the Ohio Valley.

In the West, light snow or rain also fell in the northern and central Rockies and the northern plateau region where temperatures were near or slightly below freezing. Rain or drizzle sprinkled areas along the north Pacific Coast. Fog again was reported across central sections of California.

Junior Miss Contest Is January 5

Hope's first Junior Miss Contest will be held at the Hope High auditorium Friday, Jan. 5 at 8 p. m. At the present time 10 senior girls are entered and will vie for the honor of representing Hope at the state level Jan. 13.

Entries are Tena Pilkinton, Suzanne Booth, Penny Franks, Sandra Gaines, Betty Bryant, Judy Boswell, Susie Connell, Ann Ward, Linda Stewart and Cherry Case.

Other senior girls may enter Tuesday, Jan. 2, when they return to school by contacting Mrs. McPherson or Mrs. Williams, the senior advisers.

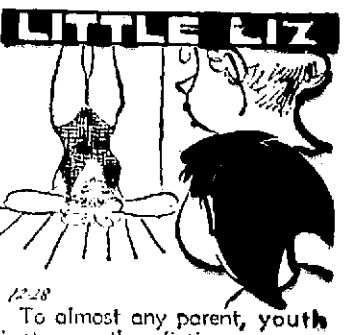

The girls will submit a brief outline of their scholastic, community, and church activities to the judges. There will be a private interview with the judges late Friday afternoon with the appearance in formal and the talent presentation Friday night.

The competition is open to senior girls in Hope High only, this year, but plans are being made to enlarge the competition to include several other schools next year. The public is invited to see the contest finals Friday night.

Bids Taken on Reserve Center

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP)—Welch Construction Co. of Shreveport, La., has submitted an apparent low bid of $1,845 for rehabilitation of a 100-man U.S. Army reserve center at Camden, Ark. Army Engineers have announced.

The total bid included a base bid of $23,242 plus $8,142 for four additional alternates.

Governor Named to Committee

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—Members of five standing committees of the Southern Governors' Conference were appointed today by Gov. Buford Ellington of Tennessee, conference chairman. Committee members included: Nuclear energy—Gov. Orval E. Faubus, Arkansas.

Says Feeling Against U. S. Can't Change

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Clair Engle, D-Calif., said today President Kennedy's Alliance for Progress program for South America hasn't the urgency to move fast enough to reverse the tide of anti-American feeling "we seem to be facing down there."
Engle, just back from a 25-day trip through eight South American nations, told a news conference the Alliance for Progress "hasn't gotten off the ground yet."
The American effort, he said, "lacks a symbolism."
The California senator also criticized the "level of competence" of State Department and other U.S. foreign agency personnel he encountered on his trip.
Engle, who was accompanied by Sens. Gale McGee, D-Wyo.; Frank E. Moss, D-Utah, and Stephen M. Young, D-Ohio, said he was appalled by the anti-American feeling he found in South America. It had increased greatly, he said, since his last trip there a decade or so ago.
Engle said he always had a high regard for the ability of U.S. foreign service people he saw on previous trips abroad. But, he said, he noticed a deterioration on this tour. He declined to name names or give more specific criticism, but said he planned to do so later, perhaps in a letter to Secretary of State Dean Rusk.

State Has 101 New Measles Cases

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The state Health Department said today that 101 new cases of measles were reported in Arkansas last week.

The total the week before was 61 cases.

So far this year 1,708 cases of the disease have been reported; the total for the corresponding date in 1960 was 1,408.

Death Sentence

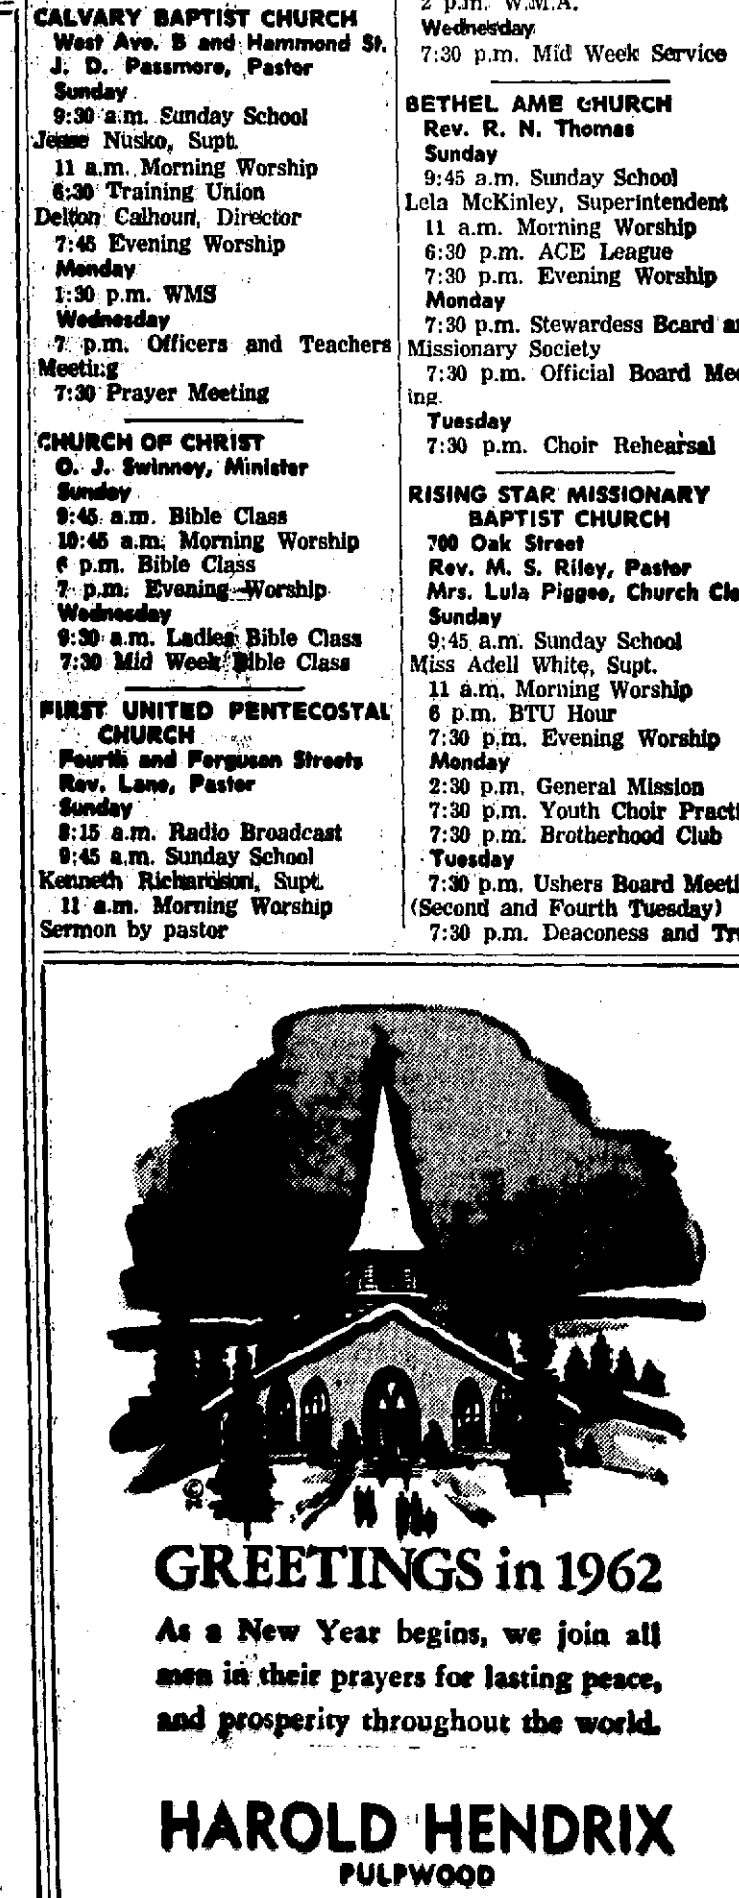

BERLIN (AP) — An East German court has sentenced a 56-year-old farm worker to death for setting fire to two barns on a collective farm because he hated the Communist regime.

sign service people he saw on previous trips abroad. But, he said, he noticed a deterioration on this tour. He declined to name names or give more specific criticism, but said he planned to do so later, perhaps in a letter to Secretary of State Dean Rusk.

Branches Hold Open House
Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Branch entertained with Open House on Christmas Eve, and their home was a wonderland of charming decorations. As the numerous guests approached the home, they saw a driveway lighted with hurricane lamps and garlands of greenery. Candles were on the porch and pastel balls and leaves graced the door. An admittance tree shone from an upstairs window.

Miss Martell Branch and Hal Branch joined their parents in greeting the guests at the door.

Mrs. Donald James Usry.

At six-thirty Wednesday evening in the First Presbyterian Chapel in Hope, Ark., Miss Margaret Ann Archer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Lee Archer, Jr., became the bride of Lt. Donald James Usry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Webster Usry of Dothan, Ala. The Rev. Dr. George L. Balentine, pastor of the First Baptist Church, officiated.

Masses of greenery and white tapers in wrought iron candelabra were used in the chapel and arches of candelabra formed a background for the altar where the couple took their vows.

Luther Holloman, organist, provided music for the wedding. Favorites were heard preceding the ceremony. The traditional marches were played for the processional and recessional; during the exchange of vows "Always" was heard softly in the background. As the couple knelt for the benediction Mr. Holloman played "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride, given in marriage by her father wore an original gown in light ivory peau de soie. The bodice featured a V-cut and was adorned by jewel-encrusted lace forming a Sabrina neckline. The princess lined skirt was carriage cut and burst into full.

Gold was the predominant color in the living room, where a sleigh and Santa were seen over the mantle. A candle, choir boys and an open bible were at another focal point. The music room was in white with a few pastel shades. A large white cross was the highlight. On the piano Santa's sleigh was pulled by two white doves.

The dining room had a Xmas theme of red with the table covered with a white net cloth over red taffeta. Miniature poinsettias with lighted red centers encircled the rim of the table. A simulated fountain of red was seen in a spraying effect on one table and cookies and punch or egg nog were served at alternate hours by Mrs. Eva Berger, Mrs. T. S. McDavitt, Mrs. George Peck, Mrs. Ross McCormack of Malvern and Mrs. E. H. Wilkes of Little Rock.

The bride, presently a teacher in the Houston Public School 59 stem, is a graduate of SMU. She is a member of Kappa Alpha Theta sorority and served as secretary of the Junior Class. She was associate editor of the Rotunda, the SMU yearbook. She plans to continue teaching in Phoenix.

Lt. Usry, currently an Air Force jet fighter pilot, graduated from the U.S. Military Academy at West Point in 1960. He attended Cleburne Texas High School and Texas A&M College. He played on the Black Knights football team at West Point for three years.

Before departing on a wedding trip to Los Vegas, Nevada, the bride donned a costume suit of gold wool with brown accessories. After Jan. 5, the couple will be at home at 131 South First Street, Glendale, Ariz.

during his last years at the S Street house. The home was a gift from the President to Mrs. Wilson.

She was to have dedicated the new Woodrow Wilson bridge that crosses the Potomac River south of Washington, at ceremonies Thursday. Instead, Francis B. Sayre Jr., son-in-law of Wilson, unveiled the dedication plaque.

President Kennedy hailed Wilson on the anniversary of his birth as "shaper of the first working plan for international cooperation among all peoples of the world."

Controversy swirled around Mrs. Wilson after her husband's stroke in 1919. The President, in a vain attempt to beat down Senate opposition to U.S. participation in the League of Nations, undertook a whistle-stop campaign across the nation.

But he had to give up because of nervous exhaustion. He suffered the stroke on his return to the White House.

This began what critics called "Mrs. Wilson's regency." She called it "my stewardship."

"I studied every paper sent from the different secretaries or senators and tried to digest and present in tabloid form the things that, despite my vigilance, had to go to the President," she wrote in a book entitled "My Memoir."

But she added, "I, myself, never made a single decision regarding the disposition of public affairs. The only decision that was mine was what was important and what was not, and the very important decision of when to present matters to my husband."

Wilson was a widower—his first wife died in 1914—and Mrs. Wilson was a widow when they met in 1915. Her first husband was Norman Galt, proprietor of a famous Washington jewelry store. Galt died in 1908.

She was born Edith Bolling, Oct. 15, 1872, in Wytheville, Va., of one of the South's old families. One of her ancestors was said to have been Pocahontas, the Indian princess who married John Rolfe.

After Wilson's death, she lived surrounded by mementoes, including a grandfather clock he prized and a special elevator installed for his use after Wilson was crippled by the stroke.

But she continued to live an active life. She sought to carry on the Wilsonian peace ideals, attended Democratic conventions, and other party meetings and had interests from charitable work to sewing.

She had no children, but Wilson's grandchildren by his first wife called her "Granny Edith."

Mrs. Wilson's sister-in-law, Gertrude Galt, who had lived with her for 10 years, died earlier this year.

She leaves Mrs. Powell and Mrs. Moeling, three other nieces, Mrs. John Goodloe of Chester, Va., Mrs. Harry R. Fowler of Washington and Barbara Bolling Fowler of Washington, and a nephew, Sterling Bolling of Washington.

Funeral arrangements have not been announced.

Mrs. Wilson

during his last years at the S Street house. The home was a gift from the President to Mrs. Wilson.

She was to have dedicated the new Woodrow Wilson bridge that crosses the Potomac River south of Washington, at ceremonies Thursday. Instead, Francis B. Sayre Jr., son-in-law of Wilson, unveiled the dedication plaque.

President Kennedy hailed Wilson on the anniversary of his birth as "shaper of the first working plan for international cooperation among all peoples of the world."

Controversy swirled around Mrs. Wilson after her husband's stroke in 1919. The President, in a vain attempt to beat down Senate opposition to U.S. participation in the League of Nations, undertook a whistle-stop campaign across the nation.

But he had to give up because of nervous exhaustion. He suffered the stroke on his return to the White House.

This began what critics called "Mrs. Wilson's regency." She called it "my stewardship."

"I studied every paper sent from the different secretaries or senators and tried to digest and present in tabloid form the things that, despite my vigilance, had to go to the President," she wrote in a book entitled "My Memoir."

But she added, "I, myself, never made a single decision regarding the disposition of public affairs. The only decision that was mine was what was important and what was not, and the very important decision of when to present matters to my husband."

Wilson was a widower—his first wife died in 1914—and Mrs. Wilson was a widow when they met in 1915. Her first husband was Norman Galt, proprietor of a famous Washington jewelry store. Galt died in 1908.

She was born Edith Bolling, Oct. 15, 1872, in Wytheville, Va., of one of the South's old families. One of her ancestors was said to have been Pocahontas, the Indian princess who married John Rolfe.

After Wilson's death, she lived surrounded by mementoes, including a grandfather clock he prized and a special elevator installed for his use after Wilson was crippled by the stroke.

But she continued to live an active life. She sought to carry on the Wilsonian peace ideals, attended Democratic conventions, and other party meetings and had interests from charitable work to sewing.

She had no children, but Wilson's grandchildren by his first wife called her "Granny Edith."

trude Galt, who had lived with her for 10 years, died earlier this year.

She leaves Mrs. Powell and Mrs. Moeling, three other nieces, Mrs. John Goodloe of Chester, Va., Mrs. Harry R. Fowler of Washington and Barbara Bolling Fowler of Washington, and a nephew, Sterling Bolling of Washington.

Funeral arrangements have not been announced.

Sparkman Rolls Magnolia Girls Cheer The Panthers on to the Finals, Bobcats Win

By VINCE FOSTER

The Hope Bobcats advanced to the semi-finals of the Hope Holiday Tournament by whipping Sparks last night 55-27. They will meet Magnolia, who edged out Fairview 51-50 in a thriller and Sparkman moved into the finals of the Girls Division by taking Texarkana 39-20. They will tangle with Lewisville Saturday.

The Bobcats were slow moving in the first period and trailed 6-4 after the first eight minutes. However behind Porterfield who took 9 points in that quarter and the rebounding of Hooten and Hatfield, the Cats stood out from 20-13 at the half. Hope outscored Sparks 13-8 in the third and led 33-21, but really went to town in the final quarter, racking up 22 points to Sparks' 6. Porterfield was high with 18, Hatfield 8, Powell and Russell 7 each, Murphy 6, Roberts 4, Wacker and McLarty 2 each and Hooten 1. Ralcy led the losers with 12. The Cats really hit their free throws for a change, sinking 15 out of 16.

Magnolia, the underdog, trailed 14-11 in the first quarter and 24-21 at the half. Outscoring the Cats 16-11 in the third they pulled out from 37-35 going into the final quarter. Despite a 11 point scoring spree by Cardinals Keith Dunlap, Magnolia went on to win 51-50. Couch was high for the victors with 14, while Dunlap had 25 for Fairview.

Sparkman had little trouble with Texarkana and led 21-14 at the half. They outscored the losers 9 to 6 in the third and took 9 more in the fourth while holding Texarkana scoreless. Gaston again was high for Sparkman with 16, and McDunkins took 14 for Texarkana.

Tonight the Texarkana Razorbacks meet the Camden Panthers in the semi-finals at 7, with the Bobcats playing Magnolia at 8:15. The winners of the games will meet in the finals at 8:45 Saturday and it may be the same two teams as last year, Texarkana and Hope. Sparkman meets Lewisville at 7:30 Saturday in the girls finals.

Again a good crowd was on hand for last night's contests and they saw good basketball. Report for the semi-finals tonight and boost the Bobcats.

Pro Game to Be Running, Pass Battle

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP) — Green Bay has the runners. New York has the passers. That is the story in the nutshell of the National Football League championship game to be played Sunday on the frozen steppes of northern Wisconsin.

The team with the best snow tires may be the winner. It was 15 below Thursday and finally warmed up to zero. It was supposed to climb to the dizzy height of 10 above today with some snow flurries. The weather bureau guardedly looks for a warming trend by Sunday. Maybe the mid 20s.

The City Stadium field is covered with a layer of straw and a tarpaulin. Vince Lombardi, Green Bay coach, said the grass is green, and the turf firm underneath the cover.

Lombardi thinks a firm field on which regular football cleats can be used will help his team. He feels a frozen or slippery turf would help the Giants because it would make it more difficult to cover their pass receivers.

The Packers attack is built around fullback Jim Taylor, still bothered by a sore back, and Paul Hornung, the league's leading scorer who was able to get away from the Army for a full week of practice.

Allie Sherman, in his rookie year as Giants' head coach, has developed an interesting offense:

They All Are Picking Hogs for Defeat

By HAROLD CLAASSEN

Minnesota over UCLA: Minnesota's Golden Gophers lost considerable prestige as they went down to a 17-7 defeat in the Rose Bowl against Washington a year ago. They are banking on Sandy Stephens to return the luster to their crown at the expense of UCLA on New Year's Day.

Texas over Mississippi: The Rebels from the Southeastern Conference poured it on against Texas in the 1958 Sugar Bowl, winning by 39-7. Not only do the Longhorns have good memories but they also have Jimmy Saxton and Mike Cotton when they meet Monday in the Cotton Bowl.

Georgia Tech over Penn State: The Georgia swifties will get loose often enough to overcome Penn State's power in Saturday's Gator Bowl showpiece.

Alabama over Arkansas: Alabama has permitted each of its 10 previous rivals this season only 2.2 points a game. It also has Pat Trammell and Mike Fracchia. Arkansas counters with Lance Alworth in Monday's Sugar Bowl show.

Louisiana State over Colorado: LSU beat Mississippi and also crushed Tulane, 62-0. Colorado had to struggle for most of its points during the season and will have to do the same thing in Monday's Orange Bowl affair.

East over West: No matter who loses or wins this Saturday's game in San Francisco, the real winners will be crippled kids in the Shrine Hospital.

Blue over Gray: A fourth straight victory for the northern stars in Montgomery's Saturday attraction.

Wichita over Villanova: The Kansans' attack too much for Villanova in Saturday's Sun Bowl.

Middle Tennessee over Lamar Tech: In the Tangerine Bowl Saturday.

Roundup of Bowl Games on Saturday

By ED CORRIGAN

Associated Press Sports Writer

The annual post-season college football hoopla resumes tonight with the Tangerine Bowl, picks up momentum Saturday in a card featuring the Gator Bowl and East-West games and will be climaxed on New Year's Day with the big four — The Rose, Cotton, Sugar and Orange Bowls.

The Tangerine Bowl in Orlando, Fla., will pit Middle Tennessee (7-3) of the Ohio Valley Conference against Lamar Tech (7-2-1) of the Lone Star Conference. The Gator Bowl, sending Georgia Tech (7-3) against Penn State (7-3) at Jacksonville, Fla., headlines Saturday's games. Also on tap are the East-West Shrine game in San Francisco, the Blue-Gray contest in Montgomery, Ala., and the Sun Bowl, in El Paso, Texas pitting Wichita (8-2) against Villanova (7-2).

Minnesota (7-2) will take on UCLA (7-3) in the Rose Bowl. The Cotton Bowl will present Mississippi (9-1) against Texas (9-1). The Sugar Bowl will have Alabama (10-0) and Arkansas (9-2) while the Orange Bowl will send Louisiana State (9-1) against Colorado (9-1).

The Gator Bowl lists Georgia Tech as a 3-point favorite, the Engineers are a defense-minded outfit and their big problem will be stop Penn State's Galen Hall.

Nittany Lions' Coach Rip Engle hinted that Hall would be doing a lot of throwing against the Engineers. Georgia Tech Coach Bob- by Dodd admitted that he was at Kezar Stadium with the outcome depending on who stops whom.

The West must halt the running of such driving backs as All-Americans Ernie Davis of Syracuse and Bob Ferguson of Ohio State while also guarding against the pass threat of quarterbacks Roman Gabriel of North Carolina State and Ron Miller of Wisconsin.

East defenders face such rushers as Ron Bull of Baylor and Curt McClinton of Kansas plus an aerial bombardment triggered by Mel Melin of Washington State, John Hall of Kansas or Kermit Jorgensen of Washington.

But the West line outweighs the East by about 20 pounds per man. "I'm afraid," moaned East Coach Joe Kuharich of Notre Dame, "that instead of holes to plow through, we're liable to find nothing but crevices we'll have to try to crawl through."

A capacity crowd of 60,000 is expected to be on hand for the opening kickoff at 5 p.m., EST. NBC will televise the game.

The North is the favorite to chalk up its fourth victory in a row in the Blue-Gray game, but the weather will be a factor. A cold wave hit Montgomery Thursday night and that could cause even more trouble for the South, which is banking on speed and maneuverability, along with the passing of Bobby Hunt of Auburn and Don Fuell of Mississippi Southern.

A frozen field would be a big advantage to the North, which outweighs the South in both the line and backfield. Dave Saretta, of Syracuse will handle the against Alabama at New Orleans Monday.

The game will be televised by NBC, starting at 1:45 p.m., EST. left knee, suffered in practice Wichita is the slight choice over Wednesday.

Villanova in the Sun Bowl in El Paso, Tex., mainly because of its closed nature of the injury.

He has a torn ligament in the practice examinations Thursday dis-pas, Tex., mainly because of its closed nature of the injury.
